The 50th Annual Meeting of FCI will take place in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, from Sunday 10 June until Friday 15 June 2018. Amsterdam was chosen as the venue for this special anniversary meeting, as FCI was founded in 1968 in this city with the establishment of the FCI Secretariat.

This special golden anniversary will provide an opportunity to look back and celebrate the rise of factoring and receivables finance over the past 50 years but also look ahead to the next 50 years, to gauge the direction of the industry and discuss and debate the most important developments such as:

- The rise of fintechs/blockchain technology and their possible benefits and potential threats to the industry;
- The impact of Basel regulatory capital requirements and the use of credit insurance as a risk mitigation tool and their combined effect on capital adequacy;
- The importance of implementing a robust compliance framework in a factoring operation;
- The benefits of establishing a Supply Chain Finance (SCF) platform inside your factoring operation;
- The implementation of an SCF operating system within FCI to facilitate the activation of business by supporting the on-boarding process of anchor buyers and their suppliers, both on a domestic and cross border basis.

The Netherlands, also known informally as Holland, is a country in Western Europe with a population of seventeen million.

The Netherlands is a founding member of the EU, Eurozone, G-10, NATO, OECD and WTO, as well as being a part of the Schengen Area and the trilateral Benelux Union.

We hope that the Annual Meeting will be attended by both the group of chief executives as well as those executives in charge of international factoring. The FCI Annual Meeting opens with a welcome dinner on Sunday 10 June and closes with a farewell dinner on Thursday 14 June. This allows attendees to benefit fully from networking opportunities. All social activities during the Annual Meeting are open to all delegates, including sponsors, observers and potential new members, to maximize the networking opportunities.

We have known for many years that the presence of the spouses greatly improves the working climate and it is hoped therefore that many of the delegates will be accompanied to enjoy the very interesting spouses' program. It remains one of the very good traditions within FCI!

This Annual Meeting marks a very special occasion, FCI's 50th golden anniversary, and as such, we have planned many exciting events and some surprises for the attendees throughout the week. We hope you can join us to celebrate together this important milestone.

The Marble Hall of KIT

KIT Royal Tropical Institute is an independent centre of expertise, education, intercultural cooperation and hospitality dedicated to sustainable development. Based on a national heritage site in Amsterdam, KIT was founded in 1910 as the 'Colonial Institute' to study the tropics and to promote trade and industry in the colonial territories of the Netherlands.

Since 1926, KIT has been housed in a historic, neo-renaissance building. The building has been designated as a national monument and is richly adorned with decorative features and symbols referring to different cultures of the world and the colonial history of the Netherlands.

The history of the Institute dates back to 1864 with the foundation in Haarlem of the Colonial Museum. This museum had scientific and educational objectives. Its collection consisted of anthropological and cultural artefacts and products from the East Indian archipelago.

From 1871 the museum also performed research aimed at enhancing the production and processing of tropical products such as coffee beans, rotan and paraffin.

Dutch trade in Indonesia led to increased public interest in ethnology and in the way of life of people of the Tropics – and their welfare.

The decolonization period resulted in a broadening of the Institute's mission, from studying the 'Dutch Overseas Territories', to the tropics in general, covering cultural, economic and hygiene issues.

In 1950 – two years after the independence of Indonesia – the name of the Institute was changed to Royal Tropical Institute (Koninklijk Instituut voor de Tropen – nowadays KIT).

Scheepvaartmuseum, venue for Tuesday night dinner

07.00 – 08.15: FCI Buffet breakfast

08:30 – 16.00: Full networking day

A full day of networking with visits to some highlights in Amsterdam and surrounding area. For logistical reasons, the entire group will be split into several smaller groups and do alternate routings. For everyone the following highlights are included:

- A visit to either the Rijksmuseum, or the Van Gogh Museum (to be indicated in the registration form)

Rijksmuseum – the collection includes the best of Holland’s art and history. The museum features the golden ages of the Netherlands at the time when the country dominated the sea. The museum re opened its doors April 13, 2013 after an extensive renovation period. All four hundred highlights from the Golden Age are exhibited together in a surprising composition. Take a walk along the famous Nachtwacht, the dollhouses of Petronella in combination with crockery, glassware and furniture from the Golden Age.

Van Gogh Museum - A visit to the Van Gogh Museum is a unique experience. The museum contains the largest collection of paintings by Vincent van Gogh in the world. This museum barely needs an introduction, Vincent van Gogh was one of the best impressionists that ever lived and his legacy lives on in Amsterdam. Keep track of the artist’s developments, or compare his paintings to works by other artists from the 19th century in the collection. The museum also holds an extensive offer of exhibitions on various subjects from 19th-century art history. During his ten-year artistic career, Van Gogh was highly prolific. A full 864 paintings and almost 1,200 drawings and prints have survived.

In addition to work by Van Gogh, the museum has a rich and varied collection of other 19th-century art. The artists represented include Impressionists, Post-Impressionists and others: Van Gogh’s friends and contemporaries, those who inspired him, and those who drew inspiration from him.

- After the museum visits, we depart for the Zaanse Schans. With its traditional green painted houses, warehouses and windmills the Zaanse Schans gives the feeling of having stepped back into the seventeenth or eighteenth centuries. However, this is not an open air museum but a colorful living and working neighborhood. The Zaanse Schans offers a magnificent view of the surrounding landscape as it was before and after the industrial revolution. You may want to visit the cheese farm and one the windmills, landmark buildings in this quaint village.

- Lunch will be served on the “Prins van Oranje” (Prince of Orange), a beautiful riverboat that will bring us back to the city of Amsterdam. The Prins van Oranje, used to be a passenger ship owned by the famous Dutch Shipping Company Alkmaar Packet. River boat the Prins van Oranje was built at the shipyard of the former Dutch Shipbuilding Company in Amsterdam in 1908.
- When back in Amsterdam, we will split up for some short walks through the city center. Amsterdam has many different faces – and a few facts stand out: the 165 canals with its 1281 bridges, more than 600,000 bicycles, the main canals with its luxurious mansions, the sparkling nightlife. De Jordaan might be seen as the most interesting and cosiest neighbourhood of Amsterdam. Everyone will feel at home in this most romantic area of the Netherlands.

18.30 - 22:30: Farewell Cocktails and Dinner in the Concertgebouw.

The Royal Concertgebouw offers a very stylish setting for an event in the heart of Amsterdam. The building is worldly renowned for its amazing acoustics, one of the best in the world. There will be a number of performances on the large stage, befitting the character of this 50th anniversary meeting!

SPOUSE PROGRAMME DURING CONFERENCE DAYS

Spouse

MONDAY 11 JUNE: 09.00-15.00

07.00 – 08.45: FCI Buffet breakfast

Visit of two museums in the morning (the group will be split into two):

The Grachtenhuis museum is totally focused on Amsterdam's famous canals. For centuries money has been earned, art has been created, feasts celebrated and life has been enjoyed on the canals of Amsterdam. The story has been brought to life by the museum, it really showcases the history of the canals in a fun and interactive way.

Our Lord in the Attic Museum: a uniquely preserved seventeenth-century house from the Dutch Golden Age. Explore the narrow corridors and climb the stairs to historically furnished living rooms, kitchens and bedsteads, leading literally to the highpoint of the museum: an entire church in the attic. The Catholic Church was built on the top three floors of the canal house during the 1660s. It is an important example of a "schuilkerk", or "clandestine church" in which Catholics and other religious dissenters from the seventeenth century Dutch Reformed Church, unable to worship in public, held services.

Coffee break will be at Restaurant-Café in de Waag. Originally built in 1488, this characteristic monumental structure now houses Restaurant-Café In de Waag. This magnificent historic building with its constrained yet informal interior design is lit by 300 candles. A combination that ensures a unique atmosphere.

Lunch will be served at Restaurant D'Vijff Vlieghe. This restaurant on the Spuistraat in the city centre is a piece of art in its own. The 6 adjacent canal houses boast a whopping art and antique collection that will surely amaze you.

TUESDAY 12 JUNE: 09.00-22.00

07.00 – 08.45: FCI Buffet breakfast

You will be toured around in antique, chauffeur-driven "2CV's". With 2 persons in the well-maintained 2CV's or as the Dutch call them 'lelijke eendjes' (ugly ducks) you will visit the vicinity of Amsterdam. Small roads with twists and turns through the beautiful landscape, picturesque villages and typical Dutch scenery.

Along the way you will stop for a cup of coffee or tea and pass Fortress Uitermeer for a delicious lunch.

Fortress Uitermeer is an old fortress that is included in the Nieuwe Hollandse Waterlinie and later the Stelling of Amsterdam – Defence line of Amsterdam. The goal of the fortress was to protect the land passages between Naardemeer and the Vecht. The two main passages were the Amsterdam – Amersfoort railway and the road from Hilversum to Weesp. The fortress could also support the neighbouring fortresses with its artillery. Furthermore it also protected the lock with which the land could be flooded.

After lunch you will drive back through the countryside before heading back to the hotel.

18.30 - 22.00: See delegates programme (Cocktail cruise and dinner at Scheepvaartmuseum)

WEDNESDAY 13 JUNE: 09.00-16.00

07.00 – 08.45: FCI Buffet breakfast

The Netherlands is famous for its 'Delfts Blauw' (Royal Delftware), and we will visit the "Porceleyne Fles" in the city of Delft.

This Royal Dutch Delftware Manufactory "De Porceleyne Fles", established in 1653, is the last remaining Delftware factory from the 17th century. The world famous Royal Delftware is still entirely hand-painted according to centuries-old tradition.

A visit to Royal Delft includes:

- A journey through the history of Blue Delft and Royal Delft and its development and production process.
- Master painter at work
- The dining room of Vermeer and the Dutch Royal family Chamber
- Museum with antique Delft pieces
- Ceramic rooms with building ceramics
- Historical courtyard
- Visit to the factory
- The showroom

After a cup of coffee or tea you will travel further to The Hague.

Here you will visit the Binnenhof, a complex of buildings in the city centre of The Hague, next to the Hofvijver lake. It houses the meeting place of both Chambers of the Parliament as well as the office of the Prime Minister of the Netherlands. Built primarily in the 13th century, the Gothic castle originally functioned as residence of the counts of Holland and became the political centre of the Dutch Republic in 1584. The Binnenhof is the oldest House of Parliament in the world still in use.

You also visit the Art Museum Mauritshuis. The museum houses the Royal Cabinet of Paintings which consists of 841 objects, mostly Dutch Golden Age paintings. The collections contains works by Rembrandt, Vermeer, Frans Hals and many others. Originally, the 17th century building was the residence of count John Maurice of Nassau.

Lunch will be at Restaurant De Basiliek which used to be located near a church, at that time they chose the name De Basiliek (The Basilica). The name basilica is an honorary title for churches, like the St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. And so, you can find a little piece of Rome in The Hague. Upon entering, the carpet is leading you to the modern kitchen equipped with the latest gadgets. Here are the dishes prepared from fresh and fair products.

THURSDAY 14 JUNE: 08.30 – 22.30

07.00 – 08.15: FCI Buffet breakfast

08:30 – 17.00: See delegates programme (Full networking day)

18.00 - 22.30: See delegates programme (Farewell Cocktails and Dinner in the Concertgebouw)
